

DISCUSSION GUIDE

BE THE CHURCH | A BODY

MAY 12/13 | 1 CORINTHIANS 12

FOR STARTERS

1. Share one high and one low from this past week.
2. Scar stories: If you have a scar, share the story of how you received it.

DIGGING IN

1. Read 1 Corinthians 12:12-27. What observations or questions come to mind?
2. What is the significance of the body metaphor?
3. Look at verses 12-14 again, what sort of unity in diversity does Paul describe here?
4. How does Paul draw parallels between the human body and the local church?
5. What is the significance of verses 24-27?
6. Based on this text, what does a healthy church look like?

BRINGING IT HOME

1. How does this passage relate to our life as a church?
2. What are the challenges we face in being unified in our diversity? How do we overcome those challenges?
3. Are you an active part of the body? Why or why not?
4. Think of one person who is serving within Door Creek Church and write them a thank you note or give them a small gift for being an active part of the church body.
