Psalm 100 | Enter into His Presence

"Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth." Psalm 100:1

In life, how we enter a place can speak volumes about our character and demeanor. It can lead one to determine how serious they should take us or respect us.

In the Psalms reading this week, we will look at the instructions given to us on how we should come before God's presence and how we should behave before Him. We should drape ourselves in joy and gladness because of who He is and because of His awesome presence.

We serve Him with singing and pronouncing that He is great. We make known to Him the expression of our gratitude by acknowledging He is God! We sing of His magnificence. We worship with praise and honor. We walk in humility and submission because we are His sheep. We enter into His room, His space, His gate and His courts with an attitude of, "I belong here."

We enter through the gates with thanksgiving and we walk through the courts with praise. We shower Him with love and adoration, and we leave with the blessing and joy of having been in the awesome presence of the Most-High God.

Let's pray this Psalm verse this week and let the Holy Spirit open our hearts and minds to receive from Him.

Memorize: Psalm 100:5 NIV

"For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations."
