What DCC Travelers Are Saying

"We were always on time. We felt safe. Great food and lodging!"

"I came to understand better the spiritual significance of the Bible as the Word of God."

"I can't believe how smoothly everything went and how taken care of we were, from the time we signed up to the time we stepped off the bus back home. Amazing organization!!"

"The Bible has come to life as I read and visualize the places that we visited. The trip provided richer context behind the stories. As I read the Bible now, I can better picture the surroundings, the people, the living conditions and better understand Jesus' teachings. It feels like He's speaking to me on a more personal level."

Your Traveling Companions Include...

Lead Pastor Marc Maillefer, and his wife Lori, are looking forward to this adventure. Marc has served at Door Creek Church for the past nine years and will lead the group in times of devotion and worship.

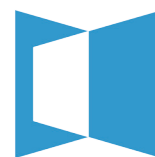

Barry Beitzel is Professor of Old Testament and Semitic Languages at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He is the author of the widely acclaimed Moody Atlas of Bible Lands. He has also been published in National Geographic, Biblical Archaeologist and the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. He and his wife Carol recently led DCC's trip to Israel in 2015!

October 9-20, 2016

with October 20-23 optional add-on to Pompeii, Mt. Vesuvius, and the Amalfi Coast

Traveling to Greece, Turkey and Bay of Naples allows us to follow in the steps of the Apostles who spread the gospel around the world. To stand on Mars Hill where Paul preached in Athens, to see Ephesus, and Corinth where he pastored for over a year, and many more will change the way you read your Bible. We are excited to offer this trip in partnership with our good friends the Beitzel's. Join us for an amazing trip that will help us be rooted in God's Word and His mission.
